MAN BELIEVED DEAD IN MINE BLAST NABBED

William H. Turner Returns from Germany, Tired of Being a "Corpse"

FACES MURDER CHARGE

Wife and Sister Collected $85,
000 Insurance After Supposed Identification

New York—(AP)—William H. Turner, former coal mine foreman and resident of Pike-co., Kentucky, tired of being "dead" in Germany, is back in this country to face charges of murdering the unidentified mine worker whose tombstone bears Turners' name. He is also accused of the murder of Henry Wilson, another mine worker killed in a mysterious explosion in a coal mine at McCarr, Ky.

The fatal explosion was considered an accident until Turner, who blames others for the affair, got homesick in Hamburg and wrote to a Kentucky friend a letter that reached the authorities.

When Turner stepped off the gang-plank of the liner Resolute arriving from Hamburg Thursday, he was arrested by a deputy sheriff of Pike-co.

GOT INSURANCE

Mrs. Turner, who has been living in Trenton, N. J., with her five children since she and Turner's sister, Mrs. F. F. Farley of Coral Gables, Fla., collected $85,000 insurance after Turner's supposed death, said she had been bringing up children in that belief. She said she had no part in the identification of the body.

In Williamson, W. Va., Joe Jacks, Turner's father-in-law, who was an electrician for the Auburn mine at the time of the explosion last January has been arrested on a murder charge also.

"We were blasting through gravel to a new outlet," Turner began his story to Hatfield and New York police Thursday. "Henry Wilson and some other men were setting dynamite charges. I was in another part of the mine."

Ordinarily, according to Turner, it is safe to attach wires to a dynamite charge, then go back to the electric battery and set it off. But on the fatal night in January the circuit must have been closed and the explosive went off as soon as the wires touched it. At any rate, Wilson and his companion were blown to pieces.

DENIES GUILT

"I didn't know anything about it," continued Turner. "That night, a brother-in-law of mine took me out to drink some white mule. He kept making me drink and when I was good and drunk, he pulled a gun on me and said I would have to get out of town and stay out. He told me where to go and what to do. I went."

In the meantime, an investigation was held, Wilson was identified with out difficulty and when Turner's absence continued for several days the other body, badly mangled, was identified as his. An insurance company paid his "widow" $25,000 and his sister $60,000 without protest.

Turner went to Columbus, Ohio, and thence to New York where he was met by his father-in-law, Joe Jacks, who had tickets for both of them to Norway. Turner left alone. From Norway, he went to Hamburg.

Boston, Mass.—(AP)—The Boston Transcript, in a copyrighted story Friday, says that the grounding of the steamer Peary on a reef near Hopedale, Labrador, while north-bound nearly resulted in the loss of the ship and the disruption of the McMillan Arctic expedition. It quoted Lieutenant Commander E. F. McDonald, Jr., commander of the ship, as saying that he suppressed information of the disaster on his own authority.

Tax Reduction To Be Made Political Football Again

BY DAVID LAWRENCE
Copyright 1925 by Post Pub. Co.
Washington, D. C.—Congress appears to be ready to reach out for all the political glory possible as a reducer of taxes. The Coolidge administration will have its hands full restraining congress from making too great a cut of government revenues.

That's the outlook as the ways and means committee prepares for its sessions next week to consider a new revenue bill. Secretary Mellon of the treasury department will not lay down a bill as in previous years but will "aid and advise" which means that he will be kept on the alert preventing extreme cuts in revenue. So he is starting out conservatively with a prediction that the government revenues will not stand more than a $250,000,000 cut.

But Republican leaders have gone higher than that in their estimates of what could be cut, and the public has been educated to believe something around $400,000,000 is not an impossible figure.

When the time comes, congress will write a bill that calls for at least $350,000,000 reduction in taxes, if not more, and then it will be a battle of statistics and estimates between the treasury department and congress as to the practicability of the plan. Already the Democrats and Western Republicans are edging in on the administration supporters from the east with broad hints that smaller incomes will have to receive the benefit of the cut.

Representative Garner of Texas, Democrat, who is the best posted man in his party in the house on taxes is talking of exempting everybody with a $4,500 income and married men with $5,000 incomes. This will be vehemently opposed by the administration on the ground that too many people would be relieved altogether of the obligations of citizenship. Small sums from 3,000,000 persons, however negligible, are considered better for the cause of good government than exemptions for the many and tax burdens on the few.

Politically, such an argument is not so powerful, especially as the congressional elections are coming on soon and more voters would be inclined to express gratitude for being totally exempted than for a cut which they will be asked to deliver could have been made to reach the vanishing point.

It would cost about $100,000,000 to exempt the persons in the classes referred to by Mr. Garner and that's why he would add it to the $250,000,000 admitted by Secretary Mellon as a basis for cutting. Even if revenues do shrink whenever there is a tax cut, the Democrats are getting ready to argue that it isn't necessary to make such large annual payments on the war debt and that it should be spread over 42 years as is being done with the foreign debts.

FRANK SILENT ON UNIVERSITY DONATIONS TIFF

Outsiders Predict Board of Regents Will Reverse Decision on Endowments

Madison—(AP)—President Glenn Frank of the University of Wisconsin is merely an observer in the endowment controversy, he indicated on the eve of the meeting of regents Saturday.

Dr. Frank said he did not intend to raise the question of accepting donations from incorporated foundations, and that he probably would have nothing to say if the question is raised by someone else.

Asked whether he had gathered data on gifts from educational foundations, he said he had not gone into the subject thoroughly. Speaking of the resolution adopted by the regents last July refusing gifts in the future from the corporate endowments such as the General Education board, Dr. Frank said:

"I regard it as action taken by the board of regents before I became president of the university and had no voice in university affairs. I shall merely watch the matter for the present time."

The board of regents met in committee today, preliminary to the meeting as a body Saturday. President Frank will attend the meeting as an ex-officio member for the first time.

It has been indicated from several sources that an effort would be made to bring the question of reconsidering or rescinding the action on the endowment question before the regents. One member of the board said it was likely that the subject would be raised. Prof. Joseph Jaroslow of the department of psychology, writing in The Nation, said the decision "may be, indeed seems likely to be reversed."

FUTURE PEACE ALONG RHINE NOW ASSURED

Belgians, Germans and French to Sign Security Treaty on Saturday

Paris—(AP)—The council of ministers Friday gave unanimous approval to France's adhesion to the security pact drawn up at Locarno.

ASSURES PEACE

Locarno, Switzerland—(AP)—Peace between Germany, France and Belgium at last is assured. The long sought for security pact outlawing war finally has been approved and the signatures of all the contracting parties will be attached to it Saturday.

Not only has the Rhine pact been agreed to but the troublesome question dealing with security for France's allies in the east, Poland and Czechoslovakia, likewise has been resolved. Under the western security pact the signatories France, Germany and Belgium engage themselves not to attack or invade the other's territory and to abstain from war. Standing in the background as guarantors of the fulfillment of the terms of the agreement will be Great Britain and Italy ready to use their might against any of the signers of the tripartite agreement which violates its terms.

Should disagreements arise arbitration between the dissatisfied states is obligatory. The permanent court of international justice, boards of conciliation and the council of the league of nations all are possibilities for settling disputes.

OTHER TREATIES

There will be collateral arbitration treaties between Germany and France and between Germany and Belgium which will interlock with the Rhine pact itself, and also arbitration treaties between Germany and Poland and Czechoslovakia. Separate conventions will be drawn up between France and her eastern allies guaranteeing France the right to aid them if they should meet with unprovoked or flagrant attack.

The various treaties probably will be signed two weeks hence in London.

Benito Mussolini, the Fascist premier of Italy, is here to affix his signature to the Locarno agreements as with Great Britain, one of the guarantors of the Rhineland pact. Fearful of some possible untoward acts against him by Socialists, from whose banner he seceded to become a Fascist, Swiss police officials and a bodyguard of fascists are guarding him in the villa of a personal friend with whom he is stopping. The police have requested Mussolini to make in Locarno as few public appearances as will be compatible with the role he is assuming as a member of the security conference.

Cuyler Strokes Pittsburg Crew To Series Victory

BY JOE WILLIAMS

Pittsburg—The world series wound up in Pittsburg victory, a regatta, a wet neck contest and a community singing contest. It was decided on the consistency of Roger Peckinpaugh who finished the channel swim with more mistakes charged to him than a north woodsman can make at a Boston Tea Dansant. The game was played in a steady downpour of rain. It was not difficult at any time to distinguish the rain from Peckinpaugh. There certainly was nothing steady about him.

While it may have been a great day for ducks, as the elderly lady from Dubuque so quaintly remarked, it was an unattractive afternoon for Goose Gossin who ended the game with a strike out.

Nautical experts in the stands attributed the Pittsburg triumph to their superior use of the Australian crawl, this will beat the breast stroke any time.

Speaking of the Australian crawl the Senators after getting away to Tommy Milton start in the first inning slowed up to a crawl when the going got tough, rough and terrible.

It was very thoughtful of the Pittsburg batters to bring a towel on the field with which to dry their bat handles.

It came in handy for the Senators

SLAIN WITH FIANCE

MISS MADELINE LATIMER

Mother-In-Law Testifies Baker Treated Wife Well

Oshkosh—(AP)—One of the principal witnesses for the defense in the trial of Victor Baker of Berlin, charged with the murder of his wife, was Mrs. Julia Hess, mother of Mrs. Baker, who testified to a friendly feeling towards Baker, who she said, had appeared to be a good husband to her daughter, Gertrude, as far as she knew.

She said she often heard the Bakers call each other affectionate names, such as "dear" and "sweetheart" and that they appeared to get along all right before and after their marriage. She said she had noted no change in this attitude up to the last time she saw her daughter alive. She had often seen her daughter sitting in Baker's lap.

Mrs. Hess told of the departure of the couple from Berlin for London and it was Mrs. Hess who advised Baker to take the gun along and in fact went to the room occupied by the Bakers and got it, Baker taking the firearm apart and putting it in the back of the automobile.

The Bakers had talked much of their contemplated trip to California, she said, and Mrs. Baker told her about taking out insurance. Baker stating he and his wife planned to take out insurance on a "fifty-fifty" basis. Her daughter feared there would be an automobile accident, as a fortune teller had predicted such an accident, the "black evil" coming up a number of times. The witness said her daughter believed what the fortune teller said. Mrs. Hess said she always felt friendly towards Baker and treated him like her other sons-in-law.

Irving Baker, Fremont undertaker, called to the scene shortly after the shooting gave considerable testimony Friday morning for the defense. He told how Mrs. Baker lay on the ground at the auto near a pool of blood, and of how Baker acted. He said Baker seemed to be greatly overcome by grief and that his sorrow appeared to be deep and genuine.

4 DIE, LANDLADY GETS INSURANCE; UNDER QUIZ

Detroit, Mich.—(AP)—Police are investigating the deaths of four boarders within the last year, at the home of Mrs. Gabriel Varges, all of whom left insurance policies in which she was the beneficiary. The investigation resulted from the death there Thursday of John Nardai who, according to the death certificate, died of acute alcoholism.

Information supplied by a neighbor led police to question the woman, who said she contracted with all of her boarders to carry life insurance in her favor. In her return she said she agreed to provide the boarder with care when he was sick and food and shelter when out of work.

Cancer, a fatal injury, and pneumonia were given as the causes of the deaths of the other three men within the last year. Mrs. Varges collected $3,000 from insurance companies for their deaths, police said.

SISTER SAYS FORMER SUITOR THREATENED GIRL AND LOVER

MOTHER OF LATIMER
GIRL DOESN'T KNOW
CHILD WAS MURDERED

Although the sisters and brothers of Madeline Latimer are fully informed concerning the slaying of their sister, this news has been kept from Mrs. Anna Latimer, mother of the murdered girl, because of the condition of her health. The first report received here early Thursday afternoon following identification of the bodies was that Madeline had been killed in an accident. This information was conveyed to the mother and her condition became such that it was deemed best to withhold until later the report received shortly afterward about the murder. Mrs. Latimer has been in poor health for more than a year.

ENGLAND GREET HOMECOMING OF HEIR APPARENT

Globe Trotting Prince of Wales
Back from Half Year's Absence from London

London—(AP)—London gave the Prince of Wales the most affectionate welcome of all his homecomings Friday afternoon when he returned from his 25,000-mile voyage to South Africa and South America. He was greeted at the Victoria station by the king and queen, other members of the royal family and thousands of spectators.

The prince stepped from the train which brought him from Portsmouth, wearing the uniform of the Welch guards. After shaking hands with the king, the young heir apparent bent low over the queen's hand. Then dropping all formal salutations, he placed an arm about his mother and kissed her affectionately on both cheeks. His sister, Princess Mary, and his new sister-in-law, the Duchess of York, were the next to greet the homecoming "Ambassador of the Empire."

Chicago, Ill.—(AP)—Ira Claire, comedienne, once a star in "Grounds for Divorce" wants to repeat the role here, this time in the circuit court. She has filed suit for divorce from James Whittaker, former Chicago newspaperman and music critic, charging desertion and cruelty.

The actress charged that her husband left July 14, 1923, while they were occupying a "honeymoon apartment" on Chicago's north side. Mr. Whittaker "with great violence and force" ejected her, she charged.

Two weeks before, the bill continued, her husband struck her in the face while they were vacationing at Tomahawk Lake, Wis.

Body of Slain Girl Will Be Brought to Appleton for Burial

PROBE HEART AFFAIRS

Kenosha Police Believe Crime Was Committed for Revenge or by Moron

Police in Kenosha believe they have made progress in their effort to solve the mystery surrounding the murder of Madeline Latimer, 19-year-old Appleton girl, and her fiance, James Sears of Kenosha, in the arrest of Howard J. Pratt, a former suitor of the young woman. Pratt is being held in jail in Kenosha pending the police investigation. The bodies of Miss Latimer and her fiance were found hidden near Kenosha Thursday morning.

Pratt was arrested when members of the Latimer family told police that he once threatened Sears and Miss Latimer.

Pratt is a motorman on the Chicago, North Shore and Milwaukee Electric Railway and resides in Milwaukee. He denied knowledge of the crime when questioned by Sheriff Frank Wilkens of Kenosha. Evelyn Latimer of Milwaukee, twin sister of Madeline, declared that Pratt formerly was a suitor of the slain girl and that he made a threat against the pair. She said that Madeline was perfectly happy until a few days ago. Then came the alleged threat: "If you don't lay off 'Jimmy,' I'll get both of you." During the days and nights until she died, Madeline lived in constant terror, her sister said.

The body of Miss Latimer was expected to arrive in Appleton at 8:14 Friday evening and was to be taken to the home of her mother, Mrs. Anna Latimer, 1141 W. Washington-st. Her three sisters, Miss Evelyn of Milwaukee, and Mrs. Joseph St. Louis and Mrs. Walter VanCaster of Kenosha, also are expected here at that time. Funeral services are to be held at 8:30 Monday morning at St. Mary church and burial will be made in St. Mary cemetery.

Pratt was arrested in Milwaukee Thursday night when he returned to his home. He had no weapons when taken, and declared that he could prove he was home in bed at the time of the killing. The hour of the tragedy is set at about 1 o'clock Thursday morning, as a farmer, Christ Birch, said he was awakened by shots at that hour.

Late Friday authorities were to question Evelyn, Madeline's twin sister.

ter, as to the dead girl's love affairs. She is said to know more about her than the other members of the family, as they lived together in Milwaukee.

The date of the coroner's inquest has not been set but a jury was asked to view the bodies Friday afternoon.

During the morning the police directed their attention to the movements of Sears on Wednesday night. According to statements made by his friends, Sears was seen at a roadhouse with Madeline about 11 o'clock Wednesday night. The red roadster was parked in front of the place, one man, whose name the police refused to make public, said. Behind the roadster was a small coupe with a man whose identity has not been determined.

LOOKED FOR ROADSTER

Another man questioned Friday morning told of being accosted while his car was parked in the Lover's lane vicinity and when he questioned a man who came to make an inspection of his machine, was told: "I am looking for a red roadster."

HOLD COUPE

Sheriff Wilkens disclosed Friday that the authorities are holding a small coupe which is owned by Pratt. The machine was found in Kenosha and gives clue to information coming into the possession of the police that Sears car was followed by a coupe answering the description of that owned by Pratt as he left town the night he was killed. Nothing has developed, however, the police said, to lead to the identity of the person driving the coupe, and it might have been any one of a number of cars.

Coroner Joseph Friend of Kenosha, said he had had reports recently indicating that a "crazy man" was in the vicinity of "Lovers lane" where the bodies were found. Recently several reports have been made that shots were fired.

HUNT FAKE DEPUTY

Motorists have reported that a fake deputy sheriff is operating these also, placing persons who parked their cars under arrest and then permitting them their liberty on payment of a substantial "fine." The fake deputy motorists say, travels in different automobiles. One night he may have a light car and the next night a large one. Various descriptions are given of the man. T. W. Logan, chief of police said Friday the fake sheriff may have attempted to "shake down" Sears. Sears' car gave evidence of a terrible fight and Chief Logan inclined toward the theory that Sears and Miss Latimer died while resisting the man.

REMEMBERS SUITOR

Miss Beatrice Latimer, who with her brother Richard lives with her mother at the home here, confirmed the statement made in Milwaukee by her sister Evelyn that Madeline had been threatened by Pratt. The Appleton girl visited her sister in Milwaukee recently and was told about the attentions of the motorman. Madeline, she said, had spent one or two evenings with Pratt but she refused to have anything to do with him. When she resisted his attentions, he is alleged to have made the threat. When asked if the name of the man was Howard Pratt, Miss Beatrice Latimer said she recalled that was what her sister had called him.

"I can't realize yet," said the Appleton girl, "that my sister was murdered. She was of such a sweet disposition, so pretty and had so many friends that I didn't think anybody would harm her, to say nothing of murdering her in such a brutal way. Madeline told me about this motor man but she didn't seem to think his threat amounted to anything. I don't know who is responsible for the crime but I hope the police will capture the right man and bring him to justice."

WROTE FREQUENTLY

Madeline's death is felt deeply by her mother because the two were very devoted. The girl wrote frequent letters home about her activities in Milwaukee and had a habit of writing a postcard regularly every day with some bit of greeting to her parent. The daily cards stopped coming three or four days ago but the family thought nothing of it as they believed she was busy. It is believed now that perhaps she was too disconcerted to write. The girl never told any of her troubles to her mother or her correspondence, however, as she did not wish to distress her.

Mrs. Latimer was in Milwaukee and Kenosha about two weeks ago to visit the twin sisters in the former place and Mrs. St. Louis and Mrs. VanCaster, who, with their husbands conduct the College Inn restaurant in Kenosha. She found Madeline happy at that time.

SET WEDDING DATE

Madeline made the acquaintance of Sears, a Tennessee man, during her visits at the home of her sisters in Kenosha. The couple recently became engaged. It was their intention to marry on New Year's day, members of the family said.

Miss Latimer frequently visited Kenosha and spent much of her time at the home of Carl Sears, a brother of the slain youth, as she did on the night she was killed. The young woman often took a North Shore train to Kenosha after work, would meet Sears there and the two would travel back to Milwaukee in his automobile. The couple was last seen leaving Kenosha at about 10:30 Wednesday night. Later a party of young people returning to Kenosha saw Sears' car parked near the point where the bodies were found. They said they recognized Sears and Miss Latimer in the machine. These were the last to see the pair alive.

The bodies, covered with weeds and ferns, were found under a ditch Thursday morning. Three hundred feet away was Sears' roadster. It was covered with bloodstains, the cushions were torn and the paint scratched, indicating that a terrific struggle had preceded the killings.

Miss Latimer was shot through the forehead at pointblank range. Powder marks covered her face. On the floor of the car the police found a purse and her purse containing a small sum of money, a handkerchief, and a box of face powder. Her clothing had been torn and, in the opinion of Sheriff Frank Wilken, she died fighting off a would-be attacker.

TWO BULLETS HIT FIANCE

Two bullets struck Sears. One passed through his lower jaw. The other entered the mouth and ranged upward, striking the brain and killing him. He was also disheveled. There were bruises on the body and his clothing had been loosened, possibly in the struggle.

With a suicide theory held untenable and the apparent lack of any robbery motive, the authorities settled on one of two motives for the killings. Either a fitful suitor who found the revenge or a person who fired when they resisted his attempt to attack Miss Latimer.

FIND BODIES HOURS LATER

The discovery of the automobile was made shortly after daybreak. It was nearly four hours later, at 10 A. M., that the bodies were found in the ditch.

Sheriff Wilken and Coroner Joseph Friend were unable to learn of any enemies Sears had made. He and his brother Samuel, conduct the Star garage at Kenosha and the slain man was regarded as a steady, thorough-going young business man. He had not paid any attention to other girls so far as the investigators could discover.

George Lichter and Henry Broesch, farmers, discovered the bloody automobile and notified the authorities. It was at first believed that those in the car had been injured and taken away, possibly to a hospital, by the attackers.

FIND TRAIL LEADING TO BODIES

The farmers, however, searched the road and found Miss Latimer's powder puff about 200 feet away from it. Then going a little farther, they found marks indicating that the bodies had been dragged along the ground. Sears' hat, a black felt, and the turban worn by Madeline had been found on the floor of the automobile.

Reconstructing the crime, Sheriff Wilken puts it like this: The young girl and her suitor drove out from the city and parked by the roadside at about 9 p. m., possibly a little earlier. As they sat there another automobile came up. There was a demand that Madeline leave the roadster of her fiance and step into the other. When this was refused one or more of the other party stepped to the running board and placed a revolver at Sears' head.

Either Sears did not take the matter seriously or declined to surrender the girl. Possibly, the police think, there may have been an attempt to strike him with the weapon, and the shot was fired when this failed of its purpose.

One of the theories held most tenaciously is that the second car held only one man. However, it is believed, the blood stained automobile would have been driven farther away from the scene of the murders. The authorities also point out that it is inconceivable that an experienced robber gang would leave behind such evidence as would almost surely result in the early finding of the bodies and the start of a man hunt.

Hiding the bodies under the flimsy coating of weeds is regarded as evidence that the killer was frightened at his deed. Thus, it is reasoned, he was an amateur in crime—probably a seeker for revenge or a person of subnormal mind.

Sheriff Wilken said there had been few reports of holdups on the roads near Kenosha, and there was small likelihood robbery furnished the motive, although he was investigating this possibility.

At the same time another story is being investigated. It is told by Mrs. Brooks, 1808 Grand avenue, Milwaukee, with whom Miss Latimer roomed. She says that Miss Latimer was in Kenosha visiting her two sisters recently and Sears was calling. While he was at their home, a girl called him on the phone and evidently took him to task for being with Miss Latimer.

"THROUGH" GIRL TOLD

He is alleged to have said: "Now listen — we're through. I'm going to marry the Milwaukee girl and we're all caught up."

LETTER MAY BE CLEW

With the belief that Milwaukee may hold the key to the tangle, a Kenosha deputy sheriff and deputy coroner sped to Milwaukee to work on the case. They made a thorough examination of Miss Latimer's effects to see if there is anything which may give them a lead.

Thus far they found one clew, a letter which read:

"My dear Mad:",

"Surprise. Just blew into your city

"If she already has an engagement for this evening, I shall have to let it go at that and live in hopes of being luckier tomorrow night, for I'm leaving then for next morning. Don't know when the train leaves."

"Well, I hope I'll see you even for just a few little minutes anyway—to-night, yes—no—perhaps."

"Your old friend, H. C."

SALTS FINE FOR ACHING KIDNEYS

When Back Hurts Flush Your Kidneys as You Can Your Bowels

Most folks forget that the kidneys like the bowels, sometimes get sluggish and clogged and need a flushing occasionally. Also we have backache and dull misery in the kidney region, severe headaches, rheumatic twinges, torpid liver, acid stomach, sleeplessness and all sorts of bladder disorders.

You simply must keep your kidneys active and clean and the moment you feel an ache or pain in the kidney region begin drinking lots of water. Also get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good drug store here, take a tablespoonful in a glass of water, before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is intended to flush clogged kidneys and help stimulate them to activity. It also helps neutralize the acids in the urine so they no longer irritate, thus helping to relieve bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, makes a delightful effervescent lithia water drink which everybody should take now and then to help keep their kidneys clean.

A well-known local druggist says he sells lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in trying to correct kidney trouble while it is only trouble. adv.

held for the crime has caused authorities to entertain a bare possibility that the initials signed to the letter might be "H. P." instead of "H. C." because the information might have been telephoned and the last letters confused.

The family here could recall no friend of Madeline whose initials would answer for "H. C."

Madeline and her twin sister Evelyn were 19 years old last August. They bear such close resemblance that even their own family could not distinguish them a short distance away. The girls were well known here, as they were brought up in Appleton. They attended Appleton high school for about three years and then devoted their education to a business course.

Both young women left Appleton about three years ago, where the deceased girl took employment with the Olson Publishing company. She was working there up to the time of her death and her last rooming place was at 814 Twelfth-st.

Decedent is survived by her mother; four sisters, Evelyn, Milwaukee; Mrs. Joseph St. Louis and Mrs. Walter Van Caster, Kenosha; Beatrice, at home; one brother, Richard, at home.

WOMAN NEARLY INSANE

"I was nervous, could not sleep, melancholy and nearly insane at times," says Mrs. T. A. Saunders, of 711 E. Depot-St., Knoxville, Tenn. "After being in this condition nearly three years I saw Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound advertised and took it. It made me a well woman. I gained 22 lbs. in weight and haven't had a bit of trouble since. I hope it will do as much for other women as it has for me." Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the one dependable remedy for female ills. adv.

$9,000 AID FROM STATE FOR WORK ON CITY STREETS

Appleton Will Share in Revenue from Automobile Licenses and Gasoline Tax

Appleton will receive about $9,000 as its share of state aid for street construction. It has been ascertained from Madison. Under the new highway law 58,000 miles in towns will get $25 a mile; 750 miles of streets in villages will get $25 a mile; 1,461 miles of streets in fourth class cities will get $50 a mile; 1,462 miles in third class cities will get $10 a mile; and 80 miles in the city Milwaukee will get $200 a mile.

The apportionment of highway funds to counties will take place at the next meeting of the highway commission on Oct. 13 with about $5,000,000 to be given to the various counties, according to J. T. Donaghey, state highway engineer.

The work of setting the allotments for the counties has not yet been completed. It is planned to have figures compiled for the counties so that the county boards can know what to expect from the state at the November sessions.

All funds spent for highways come from the license fee and gasoline tax, estimated to total about $15,000,000 a year.

C. C. LEADERS

COMING HERE

Presidents and Secretaries Will Hold State Winter Conference in December

Appleton will be host to the Wisconsin Association of Commercial Secretaries at its winter meeting some time in December, according to announcement of Hugh G. Corbett, secretary of the chamber of commerce. It is expected that about 100 will be present.

This gathering usually is attended by the president and secretary of each chamber of commerce. They meet for one day only, with conferences and business sessions during the day and a banquet in the evening.

Attention will be given this year primarily to a plan for tying the various civic organizations of the state more closely together in the interest of Wisconsin welfare. It is possible that the movement will be renewed for establishment of a state chamber of commerce as answering this need.

ANOTHER "COLD DECK" FOR COOLIDGE

Arthur Sears Henning calculates in the Chicago Tribune that President Coolidge will have considerably less trouble winning a renomination for the 1929 1933 term than did Taft and the old guard in 1912.

His reasons do not make particularly pleasant reading to any except those who are convinced Mr. Coolidge's renomination should be assured at any cost. They involve a continued overthrow of all proper representation in the Republican national convention.

After the Taft steam roller episode and the resultant breakup of the party in the Roosevelt revolt Mr. Henning estimates that 130 votes were taken away from the nameless southern state delegations, which represent no election strength and are simply patronage strongholds of the incumbent administration. These votes had been sufficient to overbalance the real Republican voting strength of Roosevelt, which existed in the primary election states of the north. Thus a great step forward was taken by the party when, during the Democratic regime, at a time when there was no Republican incumbent to stand up for them—the southern delegates were deprived of much of their power to reverse an essentially northern party decision on a candidate to whom they could not throw a single electoral vote.

But as soon as the Republicans returned to power and it became profitable to have any sort of ballots, however obtained, in the president's pocket for reelection purposes all the good accomplished during the party's "out" period was overturned. Mr. Henning complains that the Coolidge managers in 1924 instead of continuing the excellent policy just initiated restored those 130 votes and added a few more for good measure.

Mr. Henning's figures are apparently based on a broader extension of the "solid south" than usually applies. The ten states commonly included in the "solid south" had 147 votes in the 1920 convention and 156 in 1924. In between the national committee had first tentatively adopted and then rescinded a reapportionment under which these states would have been cut to 118 votes.

But even that much of an increase is ominous enough. It has been remarked that President Coolidge did not really need the southern "Negro patronage" votes because of his immense northern majority in the 1924 convention. But there is no way of calculating the morale value of his mere possession of these spare ballots. That they must have discouraged and weakened opposition is undeniable. That they will repeat in 1928 is equally so.

An ingenious scheme by which three additional delegates at large are given states casting their entire electoral vote or a majority of it for the party candidate at the previous national election succeeded in stilling 1924 opposition. Michigan got 33 votes in place of the 20 of 1920; other northern primary states were given similar insignificant bribes; and the result was that the president's neat and unfair new personal advantage was overlooked.

Mr. Coolidge plays the political game for everything there is in it. The manipulation of delegations to a national convention, so long as it is for what he regards as proper ends, has no more chance of touching his conscience than the temporary appointment for political purposes only, of a C. Bascom Sloop as his secretary. And those who believe that the great benefits of having Mr. Coolidge continued in office outweigh any possible saving of the seeds of disruption within the party, approve reapplication of the "cold deck" 1924 plan to 1928.

But some fear the Republican party will have to fight on the problem of just representation of its voters or perish. A day will come again, as in 1912, when the primary states will deny that a president supported by a head-up southern delegation could win another term.

Some of the Republican party will have to fight on the problem of just representation of its voters or perish. A day will come again, as in 1912, when the primary states will deny that a president supported by a head-up southern delegation could win another term.

We feel that the action of Judge Wilkerson in removing an officer of the law from his high office and sending him to jail will have a wholesome effect upon all law enforcement officers and upon the public generally. But after all it is difficult to say as to that, for they are in jail yet but are preparing an appeal, and then, too, jail isn't so bad under certain circumstances.

MORE ASTHMATIC WHEEZES

Real, bronchial or spasmodic, asthma is a problem and perhaps in most cases a protein problem. Like urticaria, commonly called hives, a blood relative of asthma, both asthma and hives being so active of allergy and damaged by Anaphylaxis. The protein substance usually responsible for Asthma or hives is a foreign one, that is, a protein which is not normally produced in the body and not normally acceptable to the body as food or otherwise. Moreover it is probable that the foreign protein which is responsible for the reaction we recognize as asthma or as hives gains entrance to the blood through some abnormal route and not through the regular or normal process of digestion. When the foreign protein is a food protein, say white of egg, or the protein of strawberries or of lobster, it probably gains entrance to the blood by absorption through some lesion such as an ulcer in the stomach or intestine or through the normal process of food absorption but in an incompletely digested stage. Other abnormal ways by which protein material may enter the blood are inhalation (say of the dander or feather dust of an animal or fowl); possibly direct penetration of the mucous membrane of the nose by the sharp or spiked pollen granules on hay fever particularly; and sometimes by hypodermic injection, say in the anaphylaxis or allergy or protein poisoning sometimes produced by a dose of antitoxin or serum. Finally, scientific research students hold that the origin of the foreign or abnormal protein in some instances is an abnormal putrefaction or decomposition in the gastro-intestinal tract—a genuine illustration of a state of affairs which only theoretical auto-intoxication; but this auto-intoxication hypothesis is far less convincing than the hypothesis that the curdy protein poison is produced by bacterial activity in some focus of infection.

How come certain infants or young children cannot take the richest bit of white of egg, not even the little speck of it that may be present in a bit of cake or custard, without suffering a severe anaphylactic reaction or allergic shock in the form of a furious gastrointestinal upset, or a seizure of asthma or severe attack of hives? Such individuals are "sensitized," that is, rendered unduly susceptible to or hypersensitive to the protein. This may be demonstrated by a simple test—a minute, homeopathic quantity of a pure solution of the protein in question is applied to the skin on a fine needle, and if the individual is "sensitized" to the protein, a characteristic wheal or hive like reddening and swelling occurs at the site of the test, within an hour, resembling a mosquito bite. This method of determining the individual's sensitization is now employed in the diagnosis of hay fever (to identify the pollen or pollens responsible) and asthma, and indeed it is the only way in which any great benefit can be obtained in many cases.

NOT ENOUGH TO WHEEZE OR SNEEZE
Difficulty of breathing, with more or less wheezing, is a feature of several common disease conditions which it will do no good to enumerate. It takes more than a mere wheeze to make a case of real asthma, just as it requires more than a habit of sneezing and water at the eyes or nose to constitute hay fever.

LOOKING BACKWARD

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO
Friday, Oct. 19, 1900.

Fourteen tables were in play at the skat tournament at Harmonic hall last night. The prizes were awarded to Willis Babb, C. W. Schultz, Matt Rosenblatt and H. Nebbefeldt.

A special committee was investigating the wisdom of extending the city limits so as to include a strip of land north of Second-ave and north of Richmond on which the proposed watch company intended to build its plant. The committee appointed by Mayor Hammel consisted of Aldermen Meyer, Peterson, Maurer, Heckert, Leonhardt and Comerford.

Members of the Republican clubs in each ward of the city were to form a huge torchlight procession that evening previous to an address at the opera house by Congressman Cooper, in the presidential campaign.

Kaukauna Machine works was sold to Messrs. W. Leon and Watson for a consideration of $25,000. A marriage license was issued to Joseph Bartman and Lillian Frank, both of this city.

Judge McGillan of Green Bay and Gus Keller of this city, spoke at a Democratic meeting at Black Creek last night.

Stephen Stimp, employed for many years by the Kimberly-Clark Co., resigned his position and was planning to move with his family to southern California.

The Northwestern railroad was obliged to add a night switching crew because of the increase in amount of freight being handled in this city.

TEN YEARS AGO
Friday, Oct. 15, 1915.

Dr. A. E. Rector was the first automobile driver in Appleton to equip his machine with crismatic lenses, which were understood to give better light and protect the eyes of approaching drivers.

Karl Keller and Henry Marx were at Green Bay yesterday to attend a meeting of the Fox River Valley Jewelers club.

Mrs. W. L. Lyons left this morning for Philadelphia, Pa., having been called there by the death of her mother, Mrs. M. Pioso.

The Lawrence college second team, accompanied by Coach Arthur Wittman, left this morning for Stevens Point to play the next team of that city.

Dr. M. L. Spencer resigned yesterday as chairman of the faculty athletic commission of Lawrence college because of action taken by Wisconsin and Michigan university athletic authorities. These two schools demanded an apology from Lawrence college because 31 towels had disappeared after the departure of the Lawrence football team.

Dr. L. H. Moore returned last night from Philadelphia where he saw several of the world series baseball games and took special work at the University of Pennsylvania.

George Schneider left this morning for the Pacific coast where he expected to spend about two months on business.

SEEN, HEARD and IMAGINED

The Elks celebrated Grandpa Langstadt's nineteenth birthday anniversary the other night, but we are informed that everybody forgot to ask him for advice on how to live to be ninety years old.

If we were to ask Grandpa for such advice, he would probably tell us to: Smoke a pipe. Vote the Democratic ticket. Hold your own in an argument. Do your calisthenics with a cane. Make a Kontiekk.

What are some of the new penalties in football. Dot-Dash-Dave was asked. "What don't they penalize them for?" he countered. Incidentally Mark Catlin is wondering what he has done to be penalized with handicaps this year.

Appleton high school gridders surely are gluttons for punishment. They were penalized 120 yards in the La Crosse game and yet they were ready to come back for more.

Speaking of penalties, how about inflicting them on: Barbers for clipping? Sheiks for holding? Detours for roughness? Politicians for pushing? Roadhogs for offside? Printers for slugging.

NO CONNECTION, THOUGH
When a woman's lips are cracked, She uses grease, he said, I wonder why one sees a man Use vaseline upon his head.

We see that the date for the concert by Paul Whiteman's orchestra has been changed from Mar. 17 to Nov. 20. But St. Patrick have any thing to do with the change?

A reporter hurried his way out west to get a job, failed and started to work as a waiter in a restaurant. When a customer complained of a button in the soup, wasn't it just like a reporter to make the usual alibi of "typographical error" and say that it was intended to be nutrition?

The papers say that a Texas editor refused to pay a $50 fine. That was foolish. He could have made it back again in ten or twenty years.

WAUPACA LODGE

HALL UNDER WAY

Foundation Is Completed to Masonic Addition—Harvest Festival Starts

Waupaca—Contractors working on the new Masonic addition completed the stone work of the basement Wednesday afternoon. The laying of the walls is to commence at once so the will be completed before the arrival of severe cold weather. This move of the local lodge has been contemplated it is said, for the last 20 years, when at that time a building committee was appointed. Today at least 20 members of that committee still reside in the city. The hall proper is ample for lodge purposes but when it came to either engage another hall or put it with inconvenience. With the completion of the new part there will be hall nearly 50 by 50 feet which will give ample room for any social or other activity the order may care to conduct.

Nearly every merchant in Waupaca will hold a special sale in connection with the harvest festival in progress here Friday and Saturday of this week. The exhibition of farm produce in the armory will include a corn and potato show and the Central Wisconsin Seed company corn show. On Saturday a gold-rod-gather of all members of the boys and girls clubs will be held under the direction of the county superintendent of schools.

Bowling in the city will start Saturday on the only alleys located here those of Earl Fabrics. The city place has been refinished, the alleys resanded and a new furnace installed. It will be about two weeks before a regular schedule of the Bowlers league will start.

Thursday evening, Oct. 23, is the date set for the opening of the Waupaca wrestling season. On this night the headlines of the bill are to be Howard Blaser of Green Bay against Hugh Nichols of Cedar Rapids, Iowa. Best two in three falls decides the match, with no time limit. Blaser will probably weigh in at 173 at Nichols at 182 pounds. A fast preliminary bouts will be arranged and has been the case before. Bo Nichols and Blaser are high class men and have given the best in the class a good argument. After the first match it is expected the fans will have an opportunity during the winter to witness some of the best men of all classes.

LETTER TO LESLIE PRESCOTT FROM MRS. ALICE GRAVES HAMILTON, CONTINUED

"The girl before me would not speak right away, Leslie, and during that time a subconscious feeling that I had always had with Zoe came to the surface. I remembered I was never quiet at ease with her, I said nothing about it at the time, because I attributed it to her old-world bringing-up.

Now I know it was something deeper than that.

According to this girl, Zoe Ellington has a history very different from what she told Ruth. If I remember right, my dear, she told Ruth and you that she had to leave the family with whom she was living in Paris, because the husband conceived a sudden infatuation for her.

This was true as far as it went, but she did not tell either you or Ruth that before she had gone to this family of Mr. Stores, which was the man's name, she had had a very tragic affair with a married man by the name of Raphael back in Geneva.

After Zoe's brother died, she came to Geneva and entered this Raphael family. The girl who told me the story is the sister of his wife. Raphael became deeply infatuated with her and she apparently did with him. After a while the man deserted his family and they lived together here in Berne for a long time. The man, who had a splendid position in a banking house, lost it, because his wife comes from a very powerful family in Switzerland and of course they used all their influence to ruin the man who had treated his wife so badly.

The couple were reduced to the greatest distress, and Zoe at last told Raphael that she was going to live with him no longer. She told him that she never had loved him, but had decided after her brother died to go into some family of wealth and influence and make some connection either legitimate or illegitimate which would insure her a home.

She found, however, that she had made a mistake and she was going to try again.

"Raphael" said the girl who was telling me the story, "seemed to wake up to what had happened. He saw that he had given up his wife—his child—his home—his position and his reputation for the sake of a girl who cared nothing for him—a girl who had done this terrible thing merely for the sake of keeping herself in comfort without working.

"I think my brother-in-law at this was heartbroken. He came back to my sister and on his knees asked her forgiveness for what he had done, but of course she would have nothing to do with him.

"After a terrible scene, he finally said that he did not blame my sister in the least, but it was up to him to see that this girl with the face of an angel and the calculating brain of a devil should never break up any more families.

"My sister, in telling me of this, said that her husband seemed to go suddenly mad."

Association of Police Heads

Chief George T. Prim was unanimously reelected president of the Wisconsin Chiefs of Police association Thursday morning at the closing session of the annual convention of the association at the Plankinton hotel, Milwaukee. This will be Chief Prim's second term as president.

Other officers of the association were also reelected. The officers are: Chief E. W. Gillman, Evansville, vice president; Chief Don McKay, Waukesha, secretary-treasurer.

The executive committee consists of: Chiefs Thomas A. Malone, Wausau; Thomas R. Curry, Portage; Thomas Calder, Merrill; Henry F. Dowling, Oshkosh; Anton Trochell, Manitowish; and O. K. Mann, Oconomowoc.

The convention, which opened Wednesday morning, closed Thursday evening.

A feature of the convention was an address Wednesday night by Morgan A. Collins, chief of police of Chicago, who declared that the order which has been given to Chicago policemen to "shoot to kill" and investigate the crime afterward, is proving successful.

He said this policy not only serves to protect the lives of policemen in a more efficient manner, but that it spreads fear in the hearts of criminals and does much toward lessening of crime. He asserted that crime in Chicago is on the decrease.

Mayor John Goodland, Jr., who was one of the speakers at the convention Wednesday evening, talked on the "Relationship Between the Police Department and the Mayor's Office."

BEWARE THE COUGH OR COLD THAT HANGS ON

Persistent coughs and colds lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a new medical discovery with two-fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth.

Of all known drugs, creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for persistent coughs and colds and other forms of throat troubles. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membranes and stop the irritation and inflammation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of persistent coughs and colds, bronchial asthma, bronchitis and other forms of respiratory diseases, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if any cough or cold is not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. Creomulsion Company, Atlanta, Ga. adv.

Beauty Is Only Skin Deep

That's what they say of a pretty girl. Yet, it might almost fit a beautiful motor car, too.

Then let's have a "skin" that will last for years, a skin that will retain its beauty,—still better, one that will grow MORE BEAUTIFUL with age.

And once more we state truthfully, the answer is DUCO.

DUCO isn't a "paint" or a "varnish" it's a permanent "SKIN" that becomes an integral part of your car, a skin that doesn't wrinkle or "alligator" or grow old.

Each time you clean your car, each time you rub her down, you just add a little more gloss to the wonderful finish until, finally, it takes on that soft, satiny patina that gives it a tone and quality which only DUCO can develop.

Do you know that DUCO finish, as applied by us, improves with age?

NEW K-C POWER UNIT READY FOR USE NEXT MONTH

Vast Turbines Are Being Installed by Crew Working at Kimberly Mill

Special to Post-Crescent
Kimberly.—Considerable progress has been made in the reconstruction work of the hydro-electric station of Kimberly-Clark company at Kimberly.

Work was started about June 1 to replace the equipment with more efficient water turbines and generators to furnish power for the papermill. To install this equipment, it was necessary to rebuild the entire structure and go three feet deeper into the solid rock at the Fox river for the discharge of water, and also to raise the roof three feet.

When complete, this new power station will be one of the most modern low head installations in the country, as it embodies the latest improvements in hydro-electric engineering.

All the concrete work is already finished, and the turbine casings and gates and an electric crane have been installed. Other equipment is expected to arrive this week. It is expected that one unit will be ready for operation about the latter part of November, while the complete station will be in operation by about Jan. 1.

The new power equipment will consist of three 360-horsepower water turbines to which will be connected vertically, three 900-kilowatt vertical pump generators with direct connected excitors.

One of the interesting features of this new station is that it will be entirely automatic requiring no operators or shutdown by float switch, push button or like apparatus. Protective apparatus also is provided to insure the generators against overheated bearings, overheated machine, loss of oil or other danger. When something goes wrong, the protective equipment immediately acts and stops the complete unit.

The machinery is supplied mostly by the Allis-Chalmers company, the switching equipment by the General Electric company and the construction work is being done by C. H. Meyer & Sons Co., of Oshkosh.

Mr. Thayer, in spite of advanced age, is driving from his home in Richmond, Calif., to Rochester, N. Y., and he is making the long trip alone. He has been on the road three weeks, and expects to reach Rochester in another week. There he will spend the winter with relatives and return to California in the spring.

DO YOU CLEAN HOUSE SYSTEMATICALLY?

Housecleaning need not be the bugbear it has long been regarded in many households.

If the work is carefully planned, if the kind of furnishings that are easy to keep clean are chosen and handled in the right way, and provision is made for keeping all the dirt possible out of the house, there will be no need for the unpleasant results in discomfort to the entire household.

How to make this task simpler and easier is discussed in a booklet which this bureau has for free distribution. Any reader can secure a copy of this Government publication by filling out and mailing the coupon below, enclosing two cents in stamps for return postage.

UNIVERSITY GIFTS TOTAL $2,170,000 SINCE 1908

Madison—Gifts to the University of Wisconsin amounting to $2,170,153.94 have been received since 1908, according to figures compiled by M. E. McCaffrey, secretary of the board of regents.

In trust funds, exclusive of incomes which have been used from year to year in scholarships and fellowships, the university has received $751,258.87. Gifts of estates which are not part of the property of the university amount to $872,515.17.

These figures do not include the bequest of the William P. Vilas property worth about $2,000,000. The John M. Olin homestead and property worth $100,000 is a separate donation and also not included.

The largest gift was that of J. Stephen Trapp, trustee of the State, which included a $10,000 scholarship and a trust fund of $105,870. Recently the board of regents authorized $200,000 of this Trapp gift used for the erection of a man's dormitory to be known as Trapp hall, and another $200,000 for the Community Union.

The Memorial Union building association, which is now preparing to erect a building at Landon and Park-aves, ranks next in line of big donations.

POLICE TAG 16 CARS PARKED IN PROHIBITED AREA

Drivers Told to Appear in Court for Violating City Parking Ordinance

Violators of the city's parking ordinance were again reminded Thursday evening that the ordinance is being strictly enforced. Exactly 16 automobiles were found tagged by their owners when they returned to their machines from theaters. The cars were all parked in front of theaters or adjacent to the postoffice building. Those who felt the reprimand of the law were:

R. F. Hungerford, Fond du Lac; A. E. Cohen, Chicago; M. B. Horner, Y. M. C. A., Appleton; R. A. Goult, 728 John-st; Austin Chisil, New London; William Jense, Menasha; H. E. Stiffel, Neenah; Aaron Rawison, St. Paul; August Brandt, 403 E. Franklin-st; M. Voelck, 716 E. Pacific-st; William Kaminsky, 620 N. Meade-st; Elmer Severson, route 4, Black Creek; Anna A. Schroeder, 117 E. Harris-st; Clifford Courtney, 1025 E. North-st; George W. Coonen, Little Chute; John Van Man, Kimberly.

Hungerford, Horner, Goult, Jensen and Rawison paid fines of $1 and costs Friday morning. The others were to be arranged in court later.

A warning against parking in front of theaters or next to the postoffice building on either N. Oneida-st or E. Washington-st has again been issued by the police department.

There is a city ordinance prohibiting the parking of cars in those places, and although the police were lenient in enforcing the ordinance for some time, it was found that merely warning drivers had no effect. During the past few weeks all cars found parked in these restricted areas have been tagged, and the owners assessed the usual fine.

A Sad Tale Of Scrambled Eggs, Apples And Dresses

Eggs, apples, dresses and injured feelings were ruthlessly mixed in an accident on the corner of N. Oneida and Pacific-sts at 7 o'clock Friday morning when two cars, both traveling at a slow rate of speed, came together and stopped. No one was injured and scarcely any damage was occasioned to the machines involved, but nevertheless it was a deplorable mishap.

An Illinois car with three women passengers was traveling south on N. Oneida-st. It was going slow, because the running boards were loaded with suitcases containing apples, eggs and dresses.

Another auto happened to be going west on E. Pacific-st at the same time. The driver of the last mentioned vehicle evidently was not acquainted with the city. At least he failed to stop for the arterial highway sign when he reached N. Oneida-st.

The inevitable happened. The machines ran together, grips were torn open, apples rolled out on the street and, most unfortunate of all, several dozen eggs were broken and the contents mixed with two new dresses which had carelessly been packed with the eggs.

Excitement, shouts, confusion followed. Although most of her eggs were lost, one woman hastily crawled out of the car and gathered up as many of the apples as she safely could while dodging traffic going in both directions.

The strain proved too much for her, however, and when a sturdy looking male pedestrian appeared on the scene she threw her arms about him, crying and bemoaning her fate. The surprised recipient of these unlooked for attentions proved to be a gentleman. He helped the women gather their scattered belongings, and in a few

LADIES GUESTS OF K. OF C. AT SOCIAL EVENING

A "cabaret party" with all of the "trimmings" featured the social party which followed the business meeting of Knights of Columbus at Catholic home Thursday evening. Ladies of the knights were guests. While the business session of the council was in progress the ladies were entertained at cards, and immediately after the business meeting the men and women joined for the evening's entertainment. Dancing followed the "cabaret party."

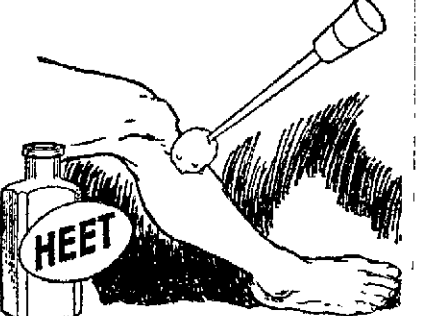

Prices at the card games for women were won by Mrs. Glenn Carroll at bridge and Mrs. Ben Beschta at schafkopf.

Minutes they were on their way again.

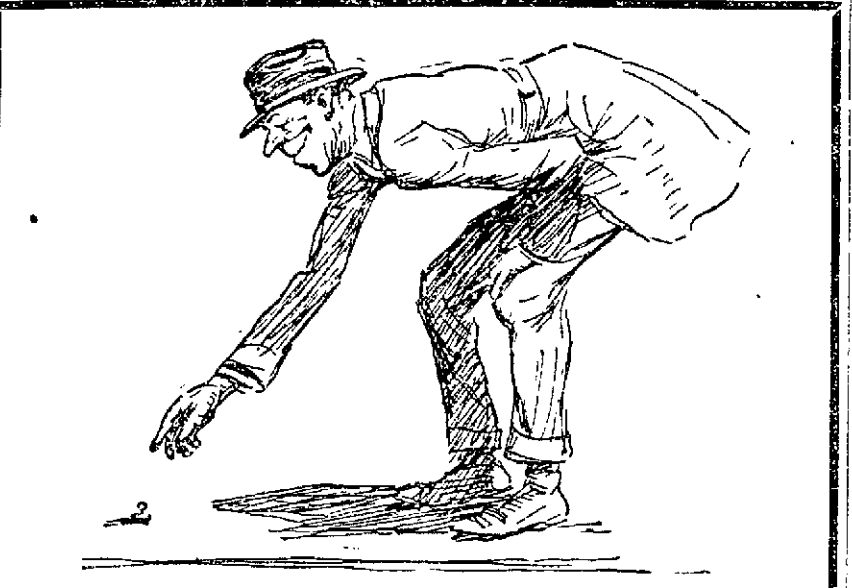

Not until then did they realize how fortunate they had been to escape injury, or even damage to their car.

EXPERT GIVES SAFETY RULES ON LIGHTNING

Keep Away from Trees, Flagpoles, Chimneys and Open Doors and Windows

Milton, Mass.—(AP)—Thunder storms inevitably bring danger to human life but the hazard can be diminished considerably if the advice of men who have made a thorough study of the electrical discharges of the atmosphere is followed.

One of these experts is Alexander G. MacAule, director of the Blue Hill observatory and professor of meteorology at Harvard university. In the little building on the wind swept summit of Blue hill, the highest point in eastern Massachusetts and in the midst of the Blue hill forest reservation, he has spent many years in watching and analyzing the action of the elements. He has made a special study of thunder storms and some time ago he formulated a set of suggestions to help people take care of themselves during such disturbances. Since that time, he says, experience has borne out the value of these suggestions and science has not developed any means of safeguarding a person against lightning discharges.

Get under cover, is his first rule. If you can't do that, lie down. About ten lightning flashes in a hundred come down to earth in a straight line and the person who stands out in the open when such flashes are seen in the vicinity is in great danger. But getting under cover doesn't mean seeking shelter beneath a tree because that will bring you in the direct line of discharge and Professor MacAule says more people are killed by lightning in this way than probably any other.

The doorway of a barn or a window near a chimney also are dangerous places to stand, because lightning follows to some extent any draft of air, especially warm air. When the flashes are heavy or numerous keep away from chimneys, trees, flagpoles or metal clotheslines, and cut out your radio.

You are safer indoors than out. The probability of a person in an ordinary residence building being struck, says Professor MacAule, is very slight, and dwelling houses in city blocks are virtually safe. He defends the lightning rod, once so popular but now largely fallen into disuse, asserting that if a house is provided with good lightning rods there is little to fear.

Going to bed doesn't do any particular good but standing on glass, rubber, a wooden blanket or any other good insulator will give a person a little more security. The observatory director advises passengers in a trolley car to sit still if lightning comes in and burns the fuses because with the roar and blinding flash the danger is over.

He urges that every effort be made to resuscitate a person struck by lightning. It seldom kills outright, usually stunning the victim in such a way that artificial respiration will restore him to consciousness.

For the protection of livestock, which often are killed by lightning while at pasture, he warns against tying them near a wire fence.

Lewis Stone contributes a masterly characterization to the screen in his portrait of the dominant John Greer, whose back stiffens with opposition and whose only vulnerability is his love of and anxiety for his daughter. Shirley Mason, Barbara Bedford and others of established ability surround Stone and give a graphic interpretation of the famous Henry Kittell Webster novel, "Joseph Greer and His Daughter," from which the play is adapted.

CALIFORNIA STRAIGHT AHEAD

A cast of veteran comedians supports Reginald Denny in "California Straight Ahead," his latest Universal-Jewel starring picture, which will be screened at the Elite Theatre Saturday and Sunday. Tom Wilson, noted for his eccentric characters, plays an unusual role in the production, as do John Stepping, Lucille Ward, Leo Nomas, Fred Essmilton and Charles Gorrard. Gertrude Olmsted plays the lead opposite Denny. Harry Pollard directed. The story was adapted from a screen original by Pollard and Byron Morgan.

HUMOR IS VALUABLE ASSET SAYS FILM DIRECTOR

Humor is an essential element in the making of a big dramatic picture, is the belief of James Cruze, producer of "The Covered Wagon" and other screen successes.

"Life isn't all serious, tense and tragic," he points out, "even in its most dramatic moments. If you are a realist, trying to portray in a picture life as it is, you must include generous quantities of humor and comedy, tragedies and hardships."

"Look back over your own life and what do you remember? Usually humorous and comic experiences stand out vividly after other memories have dimmed and names and dates have been forgotten."

"A few critics have pointed out the fact that the popularity and dramatic success of 'The Covered Wagon' was due as much as anything else to its humorous touches, especially in contrast with the emotional scenes. I believe this is one of the picture's biggest assets. I also attribute a large part of the success of a more recent picture I made 'The Goose Hangs High' to the same thing. The only point is that the humor must be sympathetic and human, not forced or slapstick. It must rightfully belong in the picture, not be dragged in by the heels."

That Cruze practices what he preaches is clearly brought out in "The Pony Express," which he recently finished filming. Comedy vies with drama, humor balances pathos, and smiles are mingled with tears in the one and only Cruze manner. In fact the dramatic, emotional and humorous scenes are so closely and intelligently knit together that the audience is left to wonder from minute to minute whether it is laughing or crying.

"The Pony Express" is first epic historic western Cruze has made since "The Covered Wagon." The story, laid against the vast panorama of the frontier West as it existed in 1860, is written around the exploits of the heroic pony express riders. Betty Compson, Ricardo Cortez, Ernest Torrence and Wallace Beery are the featured players.

This latest Cruze masterpiece will be shown at Fischer's Appleton Theatre 4 days starting next Monday. Also two acts of vaudeville.

INDIAN BATTLE REAL THRILL IN "PONY EXPRESS"

The Sioux Indians took part in the greatest battle their tribe has fought for forty years during the filming of James Cruze's new western epic for Paramount, "The Pony Express."

Not since the last battle of the Indian war in the United States—the "Ghost Dance War" in Wyoming in 1886, have the Sioux been engaged in a battle of such magnitude.

A band of more than one thousand Sioux Indians was brought to Cheyenne, Wyoming, from their reservation at Pine Ridge, North Dakota, for the purpose of this stupendous picture.

Decked out in fantastic war paint, wearing little else than loin cloths and mounted bareback on spirited Indian ponies, they were given the order by Cruze to attack the town of Julesburg, Colorado.

In a minute they had swooped down on the town, circled around it, firing arrows and old fashioned muskets, driving off the stock, and sustaining

Then came the soldiers—1860 cavalry, recruited from companies of real soldiers at Fort D. A. Russell. More than seven hundred of them swooped down on the village, led by young Billy Cody, played by Johnny Fox, Jr., and the greatest Indian battle of this century took place. Foot by foot the Indians were driven out. The battle continued long after it was out of range of the camera. So realistic did the battle become on the outlying hills that Cruze had to send out special riders to call it off, for soldiers were still trying to round up red men, and red men were still running down and attacking isolated soldiers.

"The Pony Express" coming to the Fischer's Appleton Theatre on Monday, features Betty Compson, Ricardo Cortez, Ernest Torrence, and Wallace Beery. The screen play is by Walter

BIG JO FLOUR

BEST

Woods, from an original story by himself and Henry James Forman.

Also Juvenile Trio, a singing and dancing act consisting of three young girls with exceptional talent.

In the story of "Baree," Nepeese, the French-Indian girl, floats, not swims, down stream to a point where she is pulled out by Tubon, and old Indian. Gazing on the icy Truckee river, in California, Miss Stewart shivered. Thoughts of the muscle-paralyzing cold restrained her for a moment. Then she laughed bravely—and plunged in.

LAND O' LAKES WILL UNDERTAKE 5-YEAR PROGRAM

Corbett's Resolution Wins Out at State Meeting of Association at Wausau

Adoption of a resolution providing for a 5-year program for boosting Wisconsin, as presented by Hugh G. Corbett of this city, was one of the accomplishments of the annual meeting of Wisconsin, the Land o' Lakes, Inc., at Wausau Wednesday. Mr. Corbett represented Appleton Chamber of Commerce there.

Mr. Corbett served as a member of the resolutions committee and this resolution was incorporated and adopted at his suggestion. The Appleton man has been an advocate of a consistent and effective advertising campaign for Wisconsin embodying not only its recreational and resort features but also its agriculture and industry. The lakes association now will appoint a standing committee to make a survey of Wisconsin and present a program that will provide for 100 per cent publicity for the state.

INCLUDE MORE CLUBS
A talk was given by Mr. Corbett in which he suggested that all chambers of commerce or other commercial clubs, luncheon clubs and other civic organizations be invited to send representatives to the next annual meeting of the association. He also recommended a research department that would obtain a large array of facts about Wisconsin to be used for publicity purposes and also for ready reference by newspapers, civic bodies and others.

Opposition was voiced by Mr. Corbett to a plan presented by Mr. Yorkson, secretary of the Wausau Chamber of Commerce, which would encourage cities to maintain automobiles painted with advertising for their cities. Wausau is using one now. The Appleton man reminded the lakes association that it had taken a positive stand against billboards on Wisconsin highways and said he was not in favor of seeing these signs moved to the middle of the road, as would be the case with these advertising automobiles.

MUST SAVE GAME
Congressman E. E. Browne, Waupaca, gave an address on conservation which interested the convention considerably. He said that only about one-fourth out of a half million sum paid in by hunters and fishermen in licenses was used for replenishing forests and streams and that every dollar paid in by sportsmen ought to be used for their benefit. Unless the state puts back fish and game for all that sportsmen take out the day will come when there will be nothing to hunt and the license fees also will stop, Mr. Browne said.

Elmer S. Hall, chairman of the Wisconsin conservation commission, informed the convention that a fire prevention organization was being completed in the northern part of the state so as to check forest fires this fall. Wisconsin can't ever have conservation, he said, as long as it has one or more bad forest fires every year.

Officers elected at the closing session were:

President, Stanley Hanks, Madison; vice president, Charles E. Smith, Rhinelander; treasurer, C. J. Coon, Woodruff; secretary, E. O. Barstow, Rhinelander; field secretary, P. H. Heilly, Rhinelander; directors, Otto F. Walsh, Antigo; W. R. Schofield, Wausau; Burt Williams, Milwaukee; C. A. Rudquist, Ashland; J. M. Smith, Shell Lake; W. D. Connor, Laona; R. G. Planders, Oconto; Ray Smith, Milwaukee; J. M. Conway, Green Bay.

H. S. PUPILS GIVEN LIBRARY TRAINING

Students of Appleton high school interested in library work are receiving special training in library methods from Miss Ruth Mielke, high school librarian. A large number of students are taking the work and in many cases have become so interested that they plan on taking it up as a life task. Three of the students, Josephine Arndt, Janet Claussen and Russell Hayton have been appointed library assistants. These assistants help Miss Mielke check books in and out and catalog books. They also take charge of the library in Miss Mielke's absence and do practically all of the regular work of a librarian. The girls have indicated desires to take up library work as a life vocation.

The local high school library now numbers 6,725 volumes 100 of which were added in the last week. The library also subscribes to 51 magazines and periodicals and 2 newspapers.

COLLEGE WILL USE H. S. BAND

School Musicians Will March in Whiting Field Dedication
Parade

Appleton high school's band will be one of the musical organizations which assists Lawrence college in making its dedication program of the new George A. Whiting athletic field a success Saturday. The high school authorities appreciate the use of the field for its games and want the band to do what it can for the college.

The band will march during the afternoon's program. The new uniforms which have been ordered are expected this week and the bandmen are hoping that they will arrive in time for Saturday's program. The uniforms were purchased with the assistance of the Lions club. The uniforms consist of white duck trousers for the boys and duck white skirts for the girls semi-military coats of West Point cadet gray and semi-military caps with red aigrettes and trimmed in the high school colors of orange and blue.

The band, which is in charge of Carl McKee, a Lawrence graduate, has been practicing marching tactics for several days under the direction of Mike Steinhauer, drum major of 120th Field Artillery band.

Menasha — Frank Ziolkowski of Menasha has filed a petition in bankruptcy with C. H. Forward, referee, of Oshkosh. He is a laborer and lists his liabilities at $1,361.21, all of which is claimed from the petitioner by Anna Ziolkowski of Menasha.

Through some action, not made apparent on the petition filed, the sole creditor obtained a judgment for $1,692.27 against the petitioner in municipal court at Appleton in August, 1921. The petitioner claims there was no consideration given for the judgment and that it was rendered against him by default.

He now seeks to discharge the judgment and interest through bankruptcy proceedings and in his petition claims all of his assets amounting to $1,580 as exempt. If the petition is granted, the judgment will necessarily go by default.

NO AGREEMENT ON FIRE PROTECTION FOR RURAL FOLKS

Neenah and Menasha Town Boards Confer With Council Committee on Difficult Subject

Neenah — A meeting was held Thursday evening in the city hall by the committee on police and fire of the city council and members of the boards of the towns of Neenah and Menasha to talk over fire protection.

The same matter was before the last meeting of the city council. Members of the two boards were present at the council meeting and asked the city to extend fire protection to them in a manner to be decided at a meeting of the boards and committee of the council.

The meeting was held Thursday evening but nothing was accomplished.

The council voted some time ago not to permit the fire department to go beyond the city limits for the reason that while the department is in the country fighting a fire a blaze might start within the city and it would be without proper protection. It is hoped by the committee of the council that some arrangements can be made to assist the rural residents in getting equipment of their own.

MIAMI NO PLACE FOR LAND SELLERS

New York Paper Tells of Deplorable Conditions in California Boom Town

Miami, Fla., is no place for a real estate man just now in spite of the big land boom in that state according to an article printed a few days ago in the Wall Street Journal. New York municipal publication The New York Times prints part of a letter which was written by a former western mortgage dealer from Miami to Chicago relative.

The letter stated that conditions for people not owning property were rapidly growing worse. It was said that while there were between $800 and $10,000 real estate salesmen comprising a few people were buying property at the present time. Many of the real estate offices are trying to sell out while others think they will do better when the winter crowd comes. It was said that there are at least 1,000 real estate offices in Miami alone and that many of them are desperate.

A few selling "big stuff" have made money according to the letter. One lot in the business center of Miami, 9 by 49 feet recently was sold for $500,000.

It was said that a railroad and express companies of Miami were in terrible condition and that the situation showed no signs of improvement. The docks are piled up with all kinds of goods, yet building material is scarce.

An almost unheard of high cost of living prevails in the Florida city. It is said concrete building blocks are 7 cents each, common flooring is $75 thousand 12x12s retail at from 75 to 7 cents a dozen, apples cost 9 cents a piece and green grapefruit can be had for 15 cent apiece.

NOTED ARTIST PLAYS CONCERT ON M. E. ORGAN

The huge Austin organ in the new Methodist church at E. Franklin and N. Drew sts. said to be the largest organ in the west outside of Chicago, will be heard for the first time in a program Thursday night Oct. 22, 8 p.m. Dr. Albert Riemschneider, Cleveland, Ohio, plays the dedicatory recital. The organ program is one of the events on the dedication week program.

According to music critics in all parts of the country, Riemschneider is one of the finest organ recitalists in the world. He is regarded as a giant among present day organists and is described as the greatest living interpreter of Widor, the great French composer. He has played organ recitals in all the larger cities of the country, and it is unusual for him to visit a city as small as Appleton.

Prof. Riemschneider is director of Baldwin Wallace College, at Berea, Ohio, and also is organist for the city church in Cleveland, one of the largest and most fashionable congregations in the city.

The noted organist will be able to show all his ability on the huge Methodist church organ here. No where in the midwest outside of Chicago is there an organ which compares with it for completeness. It really is four organs and those who have heard it cannot describe the sensations it causes when the huge pipes get into action.

The concert will be given at 8:15 on Thursday evening, Oct. 22.

Mrs. E. A. Schell will leave Saturday for Lima, Ohio, where she will spend about four months visiting her daughter, Mrs. John Ong.

Mrs. George Ahlstedt left Thursday for New Hospital at Chicago where she will enter into nurses training.

The Misses Leona Stueben and Amanda Steiml returned from a few days visit with relatives at Milwaukee.

Red Crown—A Premium Gasoline at a standard price—glides up the grade of popular favor with great ease.

Thousands of motorists have recognized the force of the "price per mile" argument and switched over to Red Crown.

The price per gallon contention is weak-kneed—has no bearing.

The story is told better by what is built in the gasoline.

Of what significance is the question of a saving of a few cents on an investment of hundreds of dollars?

If you pay less for your gasoline than the price of Red Crown, you are getting less—and that is false economy raised to the nth power, no matter how it is disguised.

The FLAPPER WIFE

by Beatrice Burton © 1925 NEA SERVICE, INC.

Gloria flounced out of the office without even thanking Miss Briggs for the key. She put it into the coin-purse in her bag, and started home. On the porch of her mother's little house stood an empty baby buggy, filled with soft blue pillows and robes. Gloria groaned. "I suppose Aunt Dorcas and Cousin Lulu have dropped in for lunch," she said to herself. It seemed impossible to face the pain again... with their eyes that searched her for sign of weakness. But to her relief, only Lulu was in the living room of the house. "Well," she greeted Gloria. "Did you get over your peevish yesterday?" She giggled nervously.

"All over it," Gloria answered, tossing her hat down on the table. "It stood between the windows. An open handbag stood there, too. It was filled with infant's lingerie and nursing bottles."

Gloria went into the kitchen and slipped into a house dress. "I suppose that is the wonderful baby," Gloria said, looking at the small white bundle in Lulu's arms. "May I see her? I haven't yet, you know."

"Set down in that chair, and I'll let you hold her," Lulu offered generously. Gloria sat down in a chair by the sunny window and held up her arms for The New Baby. Lulu laid the small, warm thing in her arms, and for the first time that she could remember, Gloria knew what it was like to hold a baby. It was utterly unlike anything she had ever known, before—the feeling of compassion and tenderness that stirred in her heart.

She was afraid she was going to cry. And when she smiled up at Lulu, her eyes were wet and stung with unshed tears. "Lulu," she said slowly, "I should like to have a baby of my own, I think."

"The baby stirred in her arms, and had its wee, starfish of a hand against her breast. "It's a blessing it's got hair," she said airily to hide the emotion that almost choked her. "So many of em are bald as billiard balls..." She scowled down, gulled sweet, at The New Baby, and gave it back to its mother.

"Then she ran upstairs to pack her trunk. "Where's mother?" "Up here?" she called to Cousin Lulu. She ran.

Her mother's voice answered her from the "snore" bedroom. "I'm in here, looking up some old baby clothes of yours to give to Lulu," she said. "The poor child hasn't made a single dannel petticoat for that blessed baby..." My goodness, the women nowadays! They don't want their babies to wear any more clothes than they wear themselves!"

She looked at Gloria as she stood, lightly poised, on the threshold. "I thought you were going to work today," she remarked.

Gloria smiled and tilted back her head. "No, I'm going home, mother," she said, her eyes gleaming like amber through the thick lashes that fringed them.

Her mother turned sharply toward her. "Have you seen Dick?" she asked. "Have you made up with him?"

Gloria laughed. "As me no ques- tions, and I'll tell you no fibs," she said. "And don't say a word to Cousin Lulu or Aunt Dorcas about what I'm doing. Will you?"

At 5 o'clock, when Gloria had finished packing, she telephoned for a taxicab... and unheard-of luxury.

"I wish I knew what you're up to, Gloria," her mother said anxiously as she kissed her goodbye. "If you've made up with Dick, I think you might tell me, at least."

Gloria smiled and kissed her. "Don't worry about me, mother," she said. "I always land on my feet, don't I?"

Her mother shook her head doubtfully. "I'd feel better if I knew just what you're doing. You have such wild impulses, Gloria," she said. But Gloria, herself, didn't know what she was doing. She knew only this: that she couldn't spend another night under her father's roof. She was homesick... and he was going home. That was all there was to it.

She stopped the taxicab before a grocery store on North St. and went in. She took out the money she had earned the week before, and bought tomatoes and bread and lemons.

"Tomato sandwiches and lemonade," she said to herself. That was the beautifying breakfast the heroine of a Scott Fitzgerald novel had eaten, while her husband was away at war.

"I'm a sort of war-widow, myself," Gloria added mentally. "I suppose a family quarrel is a war just as well as one between nations." She sighed, dismally.

But her spirits lifted when the cab turned in at the driveway of her own house. She turned her head away so that she didn't see the "For Sale" sign as they swept past it.

The house smelled musty.

Gloria threw open the windows and doors. She took off her hat, and ran out into the back yard to pick some of the late roses that glowed among the leaves of the bushes.

She filled bowls and vases with them, and turned on all the lamps in the living-room. The house began to feel homelike and happy again.

There came a sound of footsteps on the back porch.

The Donberg twins stood there, peering in through the screen door. Their noses were flattened against the wire netting.

"Hello," one of them said. "We're glad you're home again. We like you."

"Because you're pretty," the other added, solemnly.

"You mustn't like people because they're pretty," Gloria told them. "You must like folks because they're nice and good... like your mother."

"Aren't you nice and good?" asked one twin.

"Well, no... But I can tell fairy stories," Gloria answered. "Come over tomorrow and I'll tell you one about a poor girl who was bewitched by and agree."

She thought of herself and Stan Wayburn. In his own sleek, dapper way, Stan had been a sort of ogre. He certainly had bewitched her, after a fashion—Oh, well, what was the use thinking about it?

"Look here, infants," she said, suddenly. "Run over and ask your mother if I can borrow a piece of ice from her. Just a little piece... enough for a pitcher of lemonade."

The pair dashed down the steps, racing to see who could reach home first, to be the proud bearer of the borrowed ice.

In a few minutes the light tapping of high heels came across the porch. The twins' mother stood there, holding a large lump of ice in one hand and a covered plate in the other.

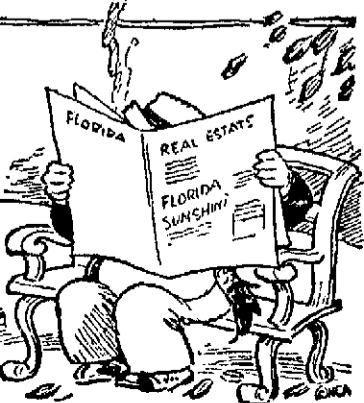

"Hello, there," she called cheerfully. "What are you doing here? I thought you and your nice husband had gone away for good."

"Oh, I just came back to pack up some things," Gloria put her on. "And I thought while I was here, I'd get a bite to eat."

Mrs. Donberg laughed. "I've brought you another bite," she said, uncovering the plate. "Some devil's food cake I baked this morning. Mr. Donberg has such a sweet tooth! Dessert's the whole meal to him!"

"MOTHER, why don't we have cookies all the time, same as at Jimmie's? His mother says the grocer brings them. She gives me and Jimmie cookies any time and my, they are good! You and Nora hardly ever bake cookies and always the same kind. You should see the different kinds their grocer brings. Won't you order some today? Yes, our grocer has cookies. Jimmie's mother says all good grocers sell them."

CRIPPLED BLUES MEET COE IN DEDICATION GAME

Weinkauf And Kotal Lost For Season; Zussman And Stark In Poor Condition

Entire New Backfield With Bloomer at Quarterback May Face Husky Mohawk Squad

CRIPPLED by the loss of Eddie Kotal and Oris Weinkauf, two of the strongest men on his squad, Coach Mark Catlin faces a terrific task in the battle between Lawrence and Coe college football teams on Whiting field Saturday.

If Catlin can pull that game out of the fire with his wrecked squad he will rank among the super-coaches of the country.

The loss of Kotal, all-state backfield man for three years, was enough to discourage any man and on top of that Weinkauf, one of the few strong linemen on the squad, went out with a broken shoulder.

WEINKAUF LOSS SERIOUS
Strange as it appears to be, the loss of Weinkauf is a harder blow than the passing of Kotal. Catlin has a number of excellent backfield men but is lacking in good line material and it is almost impossible to adequately fill Weinkauf's position. Either Schweizer or Schini will go in Weinkauf's place but Catlin may be obliged to shift his entire lineup to present an adequate defense to the charging Coe team.

The morale of his squad has not been weakened by the reverses, however. The team have redoubled their efforts on the field and it will be a well conditioned squad which faces Coe.

The Iowa collegians arrived in Appleton Thursday night and used Whiting field for their workouts on Friday. Catlin took his squad to another field but did not reveal where. He will quarter his team at the Valley Inn, Neenah, Friday night so he can keep the men together.

EXPECT BIG CRUAD
A record breaking game is expected at Saturday's game because of the dedication program which will precede the struggle. The program includes a parade around the field and a short address by President Henry M. Whittington before the box occupied by George A. Whiting, Neenah, donor of the field. Mr. Whiting will kick off the football as the game starts. All lettermen of the Blue institution as well as members of both football squads and three bands will march in the opening parade.

TWO MEN INJURED
While Coe is favored to win because of the Blue crippled lineup, the Catholics are expected to make a game fight. Beside the loss of Weinkauf and Kotal, Stark, versatile tackle is nursing a bad side and Zussman at quarter has a bum shoulder received in the Northwestern game. The Blue mentors have had a hard job putting together an entire new combination in two days and the results are far from promising, though.

COE HAS STRONG LINE
The week before the Buena Vista game Coe lost another tough one to Monmouth, a midwest conference foe, and is out to pull Lawrence down the ladder from the title also. Though Coe lost in the opening games her forward wall ranks with any in the midwest and even she will meet an unknown quantity in the Blue and White institution expected to have an exceptionally strong eleven this fall.

Columbia hasn't sponsored a real first-class outfit since the old days of revolving wedges, tandem formations, guards back and so on, plays that were favorites before the forward pass and open style of game came into vogue.

For several seasons football was on a taboo at Columbia. Only in the last quarterbacks of the season, Pease is five years has been placed on the regular sport calendar again.

Last fall Columbia lost a fairly formidable aggregation. It beat a fine old runner he has lost, if any, superior of the best schools in the east and west. Kirlengier is also a star of the held the powerful Pennsylvania team without order to a 10-7 victory. And Penn. will be recalled, had one of the outstanding eleven in the country.

COMPLETE SPORT CARD FOR BLUE HOMECOMING

Former Lawrentians and Blue alumni who will return to Appleton to take part in the big homecoming celebration a week from Saturday, featured by the Ripon-Lawrence state and midwest conference football game, will get a real day of sport to entertain them if present plans are completed.

Efforts are being made to schedule a cross-country race between the 1925-26 Blue squad and Northwestern college of Naperville, Ill., to be held in the morning. Another event for the morning is a football game between the Blue frosh and Shawano high school, 1924 Wisconsin River Valley conference champs. This should be a battle shaded only by the afternoon conflict. Dillett, a former Shawano high athlete, will face his old mates, as Frosh quarterback. The Lawrence yardlines have the strongest crowd ever at the Blue school and many are sure to make the varsity next year, so that old Lawrentians will get a peek at some future Lawrence greats in the morning game.

HOTEL PINMEN LOSE LITTLE CHUTE MATCH

Taking two out of three games from their opponents, the Dick Five of Little Chute, Thursday evening on the Little Chute alleys, the Hotel Northern of Appleton, nevertheless lost their first match of the 1925-26 bowling season by 97 pins. The home quint, capped the first game by a 125 pin margin, but a nice comeback helped the Appleton joggers in the next two games.

However, it was not enough, as they only took the 115 by 38 and 17 pin margins to cut down their opponents big lead.

DICK FIVE—H. Hoesakker, 164, 148, 164, 158; Van Alden, 157, 166, 157, 154; Harry Hartjes, 190, 201, 172, 502; Frank Huisman, 200, 180, 127, 510; John C. Bruin, 148, 179, 164, 482; Totals, 901, 893, 780, 2,557.

Hotel Northern—N. Brainer, 165, 140, 151, 308; Van Alden, 157, 166, 157, 154; Harry Hartjes, 190, 201, 172, 502; Frank Huisman, 200, 180, 127, 510; John C. Bruin, 148, 179, 164, 482; Totals, 901, 893, 780, 2,557.

PROBABLE STARTERS
Catlin probably will start a backfield composed of his backfield at fullback, Nollies, Ott or Brisse at halves and Bloomer at the calling job. The big fullback is a good punner and can be depended upon to make big plays in any line, beside bearing down opponents with his weight.

Another backfield of Brisse at full, Nason and Heideman, halves and Zussman at quarter is all set to go in also. Both rear crews should function fairly well with the latter much speedier. In the line Hipske will guard at center, Schini or Schweizer at guards, Council and Beyer and Blue forward wall with many chances to break through and stop the Big Blue backs before they can get a decent start. The Kohawk rear wall was badly battered by injuries.

COE HAS STRONG LINE
The week before the Buena Vista game Coe lost another tough one to Monmouth, a midwest conference foe, and is out to pull Lawrence down the ladder from the title also. Though Coe lost in the opening games her forward wall ranks with any in the midwest and even she will meet an unknown quantity in the Blue and White institution expected to have an exceptionally strong eleven this fall.

Columbia hasn't sponsored a real first-class outfit since the old days of revolving wedges, tandem formations, guards back and so on, plays that were favorites before the forward pass and open style of game came into vogue.

For several seasons football was on a taboo at Columbia. Only in the last quarterbacks of the season, Pease is five years has been placed on the regular sport calendar again.

ROCKNE EXPECTS DEFEAT BY ARMY

Many Important Grid Battles, Including Intersectionals, on Saturday Card

Chicago—Threatening clouds are moving Friday over the foot ball sky bringing probable boosts or blasts to title hopes of midwest teams.

Toward the east go thirty-five hopefuls of the pessimistic Knute Rockne to do annual combat in the Notre Dame-Army classic in the Tankee stadium.

Rockne expects to lose, but his proteges, who have been pointing for the game since they started practice, are scared to produce their best efforts.

EAST VS WEST
From the east come Syracuse to Indiana and Columbia to Ohio State, neither game bearing on the western conference standings. Both the Hoosiers and Buckeyes have polished aerial attacks, but muddy fields may affect their tactics.

A strong Michigan disturbance is invading the fair of the Badgers, carrying its full strength to sustain its hold on the conference pinnacle. The game is Wisconsin's big ten opener and Coach Little is hopeful of cheering the old grads gathered for the homecoming, with a favorable showing if not a win.

GRANGE VS. KUTSCH
The Illinois whirlwind, "Red" Grange, again his 1924 self, anticipates universal in meeting Iowa's tornado, Nick Kutsch, asping "point a minute" triple threat. With Grange is his old team mate Britton whose interference aided him in his long gains last year.

Local disturbance is the football forecast Saturday for Chicago, where the Maroons and Northwestern engage in civil strife. The Purple has ready a repertoire of mixed air and ground plays, Chicago which won last year, 3 to 0, has a forward pass threat and its usual line crushing machinery.

Of minor consequence are the meetings of Minnesota and Wabash, and Purdue and its neighbor Rose Poly.

Dave's Dots And Dashes
Some loyal fan still has hopes for Lawrence in spite of a fall the bad breaks and we think there are more like this at the Blue school. It's the spirit that has carried Catlin's boys through time and gain and probably will this year also.

Dear Dave—The old hammer has started knocking on Lawrence since the suspension of Eddie Kotal. While we all realize that his loss will probably be felt, let us not overlook the fact that with Nason, Heideman, Nollies and Brisse in the backfield Lawrence has one of the best back fields in the country. Jake Zussman played a creditable game against Oshkosh Normal and Lawrence won. Because they didn't win by a 78 to 0 score in their first start is no reason for the use of the pile driver, and although things look a little dark with Dillett and Carroll looming up as title contenders let us stick by old Mark and show him we are still with him by turning out for the Coe game Saturday and rooting for Lawrence for best performances if nothing more.

That's old to old man Catlin and if there is football material in that line he may not give Dillett and Carroll a surprise. Anyway—win, lose or draw, we're all for Lawrence and Catlin first, last, and all the time.

LOYAL FAN
The first annual pow wow of the eastern Wisconsin baseball league is to be Oct. 22 in the Retlaw hotel at Fond du Lac. It is expected that some 250 persons will gather around the festive board. A number of prominent diamond chieftains have been invited to address the gathering.

Gibson, former Wisconsin star, has developed a first class football team at Janesville this season. The Janesville walked off with three straight victories, bowing over some old enemies. Janesville's best win was the 61 to 13 walloping handed to husky Watertown scholastic outfit.

Kresky, a younger member of that well known family of footballers in Marinette, is giving satisfaction at a tackle berth on Tom Johnson's team this fall. He is pretty big for a schooler and fairly fast on his feet. In the game against Racine, Kresky performed in college style on the defense.

Stevens Point has got off to a flying start in the football championship race of the Wisconsin Valley conference. The Pointers are credited with three wins in a row and they have a commanding lead. Shawano, last year's title holders, is unable to be in the running for the grid supremacy.

Cavosie, Ironwood High school, is considered one of the greatest scholastic footballers in the middle west. Cub Buck worked the Ironwood Mononocine game last week and he came home singing the praises of Cavosie. The Ironwood captain made 3 touchdowns and kicked a 55-yard field goal.

Our old friend Rollo is getting in the habit of making a weekly pilgrimage, the shrine of athletics and offering up a "sacrifice." His for this week deals with Ripon college, a darkhorse.

BIG GAME IS SORT OF ALL-MICHIGAN AFFAIR

Ann Arbor, Mich.—It will be a sort of an all-Michigan affair when the Wolverines tackle their ancient rivals—the Wisconsin Badgers—at Madison this Saturday. At least in so far as the tutoring end is concerned.

For virtually the entire coaching staffs of the two schools are made up of chaps who had much to do with Michigan football activities during the last few seasons.

For instance, on the Maize and Blue directing bench will be Harry Kipke, Jack Blott, Franklin Cappon and "Tad" Weiman, besides the tutor, "Hurry Up" Yost.

On the Wisconsin side will be Head Coach George Little, Irwin Uteritz and Ediff Slaughter, all former Michiganers. Little was assistant to Yost for several seasons, while Uteritz and Slaughter gained fame on the field of battle. Both are now members of the Cardinal coaching ensemble.

Kipke, Blott and Slaughter were all America selections on the late Walter Camp's mythical first elevens. Uteritz made the third team one season. Cappon and Weiman were all-Western gridgers.

This is Little's first season at Wisconsin and he no doubt would rather trip up the Wolverines than any other school on the schedule. Yost, on the other hand, doesn't relish the thought of letting his former assistant hand him a defeat. So, a battle royal looms apparent.

BADGERS READY FOR MICHIGAN
40,000 Persons Expected to Attend Homecoming Battle Between Ancient Rivals

Madison—(AP)—Coach George Little and his staff Friday finished polishing the Wisconsin football machine for the biggest action of the Badger season—the Homecoming struggle with Michigan.

The Wisconsin squad has been trained during the past few weeks in technical games, a form of attack that Michigan uses. Meanwhile, every effort has been made to form a strong line for use against the Wolverines. The tapering down process which ended today included a review of the fundamentals of football, in order that the Badgers' preparations would be complete in every detail.

The largest Homecoming crowd in Wisconsin history, 40,000 persons, is expected to see the annual classic, in which Michigan has been the winner for a string of years. The game will be largely a contest of coaching skill developed at Michigan. Little and his two assistants, Slaughter and Uteritz, came to Wisconsin from the Wolverines, of whom Little formerly was coach.

The Badger lineup was uncertain today, but it was expected to be chosen from the following: Wilson, center; Von Bremer, fullback; Kaskiska, guards; Nelson and Straubel, tackles; Burrus, end; Crofoot, quarterback; D. Harmon and McAndrews, halfbacks; and Leo Harmon, fullback.

GOLF As Champions Play It
THE LEFT LEG SHOULD CARRY THREE-FOURTHS OF THE WEIGHT
WHEN MAKING THE MASHIE-SHOT

In playing the mashie which leg should carry the balance of weight at the top of the swing?

BY LEO DIEGEL
Canadian Open Champion 1924 and 1925

The left leg should carry at least three quarters of the weight in mashie play. Most golfers pivot too much with this club. A mashie shot is only a short, compact hit and only a slight pivot is necessary. The left shoulder should dip on the back stroke. This will help to keep the weight on the left foot.

OHIO WESLEYAN HAS GRID ACE IN PEARCE
In Harley Pearce Ohio Wesleyan has a great back. He's fast, a remarkable dodger and a tough chap to bring down once he gets under way. He's been the Wesleyan mainstay for several seasons and this fall appears better than ever.

TULANE HAS STRONG TEAM THIS SEASON
Tulane University showed unexpected strength by battling the University of Missouri eleven to a 6-6 tie in its second game of the season. The New Orleans eleven was out-gunned 15 pounds to the man but held the "Show Me" outfit in check virtually from start to finish. In "Peggy" Flournoy, Tulane has a gridger of the highest magnitude.

Green Bay—Sherman Brown, Milwaukee was elected President of the Wisconsin division of the Izaak Walton League of America.

MANY RECORDS GO "BUST" IN SERIES

Home Run Hitting With Goslin and Harris Starring Is Biggest Mark Change

Pittsburg, Pa.—(AP)—Records were broken thick and fast in the Pirates' world series battle with Washington. The most notable were in home run hitting, where individual as well as team marks went into the discard before the slugging led by Goose Goslin and Joe Harris of the Senators, each of whom slammed out three circuit blows to tie the individual record for a single series.

Goslin set an all-series record for himself by increasing his total to six for two years, displacing the previous mark of four held by Babe Ruth. Peck's homer Thursday increased the two-club total to 12 eclipsing the former record of 10 set by the Yankees and Giants in 1923, while Washington's eight round-trippers also set up a new one club standard for a single series.

ERROR MARK BROKEN
Peck's startling total of eight errors was the most tragic new record, his string of misplays removing the names of Hans Wagner and Joe Sewell from the record books in this respect. The latter pair each had registered six errors in a series.

OTHER MARKS
Other new marks follow:

EASTERN SQUADS SET FOR 1ST BIG BATTLES

New York—(AP)—Scrimmaging has concluded a week of intensive training at eastern football camps for the big games on tap Saturday. Yale's battle with Pennsylvania is one of the outstanding frays. Penn and Yale met 12 times from 1879 until 1893 and not one contest was won by the Quakers. Dusk had settled when the Princeton squad had closed its home workout Thursday preparatory for the march against the Middies. Despite shifts during the week, Jeffers and Mooser are backing at the wing positions.

Two Harvard varsity teams were sent against a scrub eleven using Holy Cross' formations Thursday. Gil Dobie's Cornell eleven received finishing touches in a hard scrimmage which wound up practice until after the Rutgers game.

Twelve one base hits by Sam Rice, breaking mark of nine set by J. Sebring of Pittsburg in 1903 and equaled later by four others.

Max Carey hit three times by pitcher, setting new record, also tying record of four hits in single games, set by Tommy Leach in 1903 and equaled later by dozen others. Stan Harris accepting thirteen chances in field in fourth game equalling record made by Claude Ritchie of Pittsburg in 1903.

What Do You Mean-'Lost'?

If you mean that you've missed some valuable article, but haven't advertised for it in the Post-Crescent-don't say "lost!"

Just say that you don't know where it is-and call 543 at once.

Most people know the practical value of this plan. They've learned that a "Lost" ad in the A-B-C Classified columns is the quickest, surest way of recovery-whether they've lost a diamond pin or a hotbedded dog.

These little ads operate on a system like this: If an honest person finds what you lose, he or she will watch for your ad in the Post-Crescent-and nine out of every ten people are honest.

The results produced by A-B-C "Lost" ads all the time are unusual. You can use one with the feeling that it will accomplish its purpose. If that is possible.

Whenever you discover a loss-call 543.
